Rushville Sept. 23rd 1823.
Dear Brother

I have brought on your Medicines this far and have directed d. J. Young to send them on as soon as possible you can (or I have directed Brother Young to call for the Money in my hand, on W. Boulton). If you will write to me and send a Memorandum I will get what articles you want as low as they can be purchased, I leave home for Baltimore the 22nd and would be there till the 28th if I do direct your letter to Baltimore care Elder & Taylor Merchants, I am sorry to hear that you elected any resolutionists or delegates. although I hope many of them will take the back track before they will let a few influential lo cal men dictate ^{to} and destroy the tenorancy to set themselves at the head may the Lord preserve us from evil my pen and paper are now bad I must stop
